

PLAN TO ADMIT GERMANY TO THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS PROVIDING SHE LOYALLY EXECUTES TREATY TERMS

LAUNCHING RECORD SET AS U. S. MEETS WORLD-FEEDING PROBLEM

Glimpse of Hog Island shipyard, near Philadelphia, sponsors of five ships launched in forty-eight minutes recently. Left to right, sponsors, with names of four of ships they christened, are: Miss Ermer Kelsner, Reading, Pa., "Maiden Creek"; Mrs. Mary Baird Fox, Camden, N. J., "Nedmac"; Mrs. William R. Thomas, Allentown, Pa., "Lehigh"; Miss Lois Gaither, Pipestone, Minn., "Pipestone County"; Mrs. J. D. Andrew, Philadelphia. Other photo shows "Nedmac" slipping into water.

The recent feat of the government in launching five 7,800-ton cargo vessels in forty-eight minutes at the Hog Island shipyard, shows how the U. S. is rising to the problem of feeding and furnishing materials and equipment to the European nations.

COPY OF TREATY WAS BROUGHT TO AMERICA BY A NEWSPAPER MAN

NOW BEING PUBLISHED

Was Obtained in Paris and Contains Nothing Vital not Previously Announced.

(By Associated Press)

New York, June 9. — The full text of the treaty of peace with the Central Powers which has been the subject of discussion in the United States Senate for a week or more, has been brought to this country by Frazier Hunt, a correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, and is being syndicated to newspapers in this country in copyrighted sections. The first section appeared today. Mr. Hunt says the copy of the treaty which he brought here is one of the original drafts, and was obtained in Paris. It is printed in French and English, is contained in 416 pages and runs about 75,000 words.

Mr. Hunt says it is quite easy to obtain German translations of the treaty in Germany and neutral countries. The summary of the treaty, as previously published in this country, he says, substantially carries the important points to the full treaty, and only in a few places are there omissions.

These, he says, occur in the section relating to the Saar Valley and in reference to the international labor organization.

WILSON HAS NOT BEEN TOLD

(By Associated Press)

Washington, June 9. — President Wilson has not been advised of the telegraphers' strike situation, Secretary Tumulty said today, and officials have no intention of calling the matter to his attention at this time.

No move has been made by the Post Office Department. It was said today officially that the government regarded the continued operation of the cable lines as absolutely essential and that, if necessary, experienced men from the army would operate them.

WILSON URGES RIGID PROBE IN TREATY MUDDLE

Says Persons Having Copy Not Entitled to Make Use of It

Indicates no Text Ready for the Senate.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, June 9. — President Wilson in a cablegram received today by Senator Hitchcock, democrat, of Nebraska, said he hoped the investigation by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee of how copies of the peace treaty reached private interests in New York would "be most thoroughly prosecuted."

He said he had felt it "was highly undesirable officially to communicate the text of a document which is still in negotiation and subject to change" and that anyone who had possession of the official English draft has "what he is clearly not entitled to have or communicate."

This statement strengthened the belief that he would not comply with the request that the treaty text be furnished it at this time.

Lloyd George and Premier Clemenceau Have Different Views Over Reply to Germany

Estonians and Lithuanians Push Bolshevik Forces Back

(By Associated Press)

Plans for easing the terms upon which Germany will be admitted to the League of Nations are under consideration by the peace conference heads.

If Germany shows that she proposes a stable government, signs the peace treaty and loyally executes it, she will be admitted, according to the plans.

The replies to Germany's counter proposals may be delivered by the latter part of the week, but not before Friday, according to present indications. It will be stipulated in the reply that Germany must act in acceptance or rejection of the treaty within five days.

Paris dispatches indicate that the delay in framing the reply is due to divergent views held by Premier Lloyd George and Premier Clemenceau. President Wilson is said to be adhering to his policy of deferring to the British and French in this particular matter, while Premier Orlando of Italy is still holding aloof, following his plan of leaving the settlement of the negotiations relative to Germany to the other allies.

The Turkish peace mission is expected to arrive at Marseilles Wednesday. It will be quartered at Vaucresson, about three miles from Versailles.

Estonian and Lithuanian forces are advancing against the Bolsheviks along the Dvina River southeast of Riga. The former have taken the important towns of Kreitzburg and Jakobstadt, while the latter are approaching Dvinsk.

East of Riga, however, German Landwehr troops are reported to be aiding the Bolsheviks and to have forced Lettish detachments to retreat. Estonian reinforcements also were compelled to retreat in this section, according to reports.

COMMISSIONS URGE REFUSAL

(By Associated Press)

Paris, June 9. — The peace conference commissions on colonies, prisoners of war, responsibilities and the labor, military and naval clauses of the treaty in their reports to the council of four, Paris newspapers say, urge the rejection of the German counter proposals so far as the several commissions are concerned.

Paris, June 9. — Premier Clemenceau, president of the peace conference, has telegraphed the Hungarian government that attacks by Hungarian troops on Czechoslovak forces must cease, a dispatch from Vienna today says.

In case of non-compliance the allied and associated governments have decided to use "extreme measures to constrain Hungary to stop hostilities" the Premier's message adds.

DEADLY CONFLICT IS BREWING IN IRELAND, SAY INVESTIGATORS

Paris, June 9. — Guerilla warfare of a character "which usually precedes a major conflict, is now on in Ireland," it is declared by Frank P. Walsh and Edward F. Dunne, in a supplementary report which they have forwarded to President Wilson regarding conditions in Ireland.

These two men, delegates of Irish societies in the United States, affirm, in this addition to their report submitted to President Wilson last week, that clashes between Irish volunteers and the army forces in Ireland, in which men on both sides are killed, are of daily occurrence.

NOTABLES SUMMONED TO GIVE TESTIMONY BEFORE COMMITTEE

J. P. MORGAN SUMMONED
Senator Lodge Takes Refuge Under Immunity and Declines to Give Evidence.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, June 9. — Investigation of how copies of peace treaty got into the hands of certain persons in New York was begun today by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and before it was fairly under way a copy of the document was presented to the Senate by Senator Borah, republican, of Idaho, and by a vote of 47 to 24 was ordered put in the congressional record and printed as a public document.

It was a copy brought to the United States by a Chicago newspaper man probably one of those now on sale in the Scandinavian countries.

The investigation opened with subpoenas of several prominent New York financiers among them J. P. Morgan, H. P. Davison and Thomas F. Lamot, all of the Morgan banking house; Jacob Schiff and Frank A. Vanderlip, former president of the National City Bank.

Senator Lodge, who made the first charge that the treaty was in the hands of New Yorkers, was the star witness at the opening session. He declined on the ground of his senatorial immunity to give the names of persons who had the treaty, but said he would ask permission to disclose their names.

Senator Borah, who also made similar charges, said he had not seen copies of the treaty, but had been informed there were copies in New York. He had no personal knowledge of it, he said.

Acting Secretary of State Polk testified he had received copies from the American peace commission, had Governor Cornwell who is investigating ramifications of the nationwide bomb plot in West Virginia, said a round-up of agitators would be made as result of the data secured in the McGuerty arrest.

WILSON BOOKED FOR CHILLICOTHE ON JULY FOURTH

Chillicothe, Ohio, June 7.—President Woodrow Wilson, Governor James M. Cox and General E. F. Glenn will be speakers here at the Civic Day celebration July 4, if the plans of the General Committee are realized.

Although the Nation's Chief Executive has been invited here twice for Fourth of July celebrations, business and the war respectively interfered with his visit to the scene of his boyhood. This year, however, the committee has met with more success.

Lieutenant Samuel K. Day, discharged recently from the army, is responsible for the accomplishment. Just before leaving Washington after he was discharged, Lieutenant Day called on Joseph Tumulty, the President's Secretary, finding the July Fourth date open, President Wilson was listed for Chillicothe.

SECRETARY.

HOW THE PRESS CENSORSHIP WAS FIRST STARTED

London, April 23.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press, by Mail).—On the evening of the Sunday before the declaration of war British soldiers walked into all the London newspaper offices where there were telegraph wires connected with the cable stations and quietly cut off the telegraph instruments and took them away. Editors and correspondents who hurried to the cable offices to inquire what had happened found all the offices guarded by sentries with fixed bayonets. Outsiders were forbidden to enter, and the men in khaki were forbidden to talk. Thus unexpectedly came the beginning of the British press censorship.

The mobilization of the Naval Reserves had started that afternoon. All the streets and railways were filled with sailors hurrying for their stations, arrayed in blue uniforms fresh from the shelves, and carrying their canvas kit bags. This was the first act of war that Londoners witnessed, and the news of it was the last uncensored news of war preparations which the cables transmitted abroad.

Now, almost as unexpectedly, comes the happy bulletin that on the last day of April the Press Bureau put up its shutters and goes out of business, and no more cheering announcement could greet the newspaper world, unless possibly that of a drop in the price of print paper. The experience of an official muzzle and inquisition upon the press has been a novel one for the British papers and public, and no other people except those of the United States could have suffered it more unwillingly. Most other European countries have known press censorship in times of war and peace, and some have had secret censorships which the public knew nothing of.

CHILDREN'S DAY AT CAMP GROVE

The Camp Grove Sunday School presented a splendid Children's Day program Sunday evening to a very large and appreciative audience.

The little folks always have a prominent place on the program on this day and were especially cunning in their flag drill and exercises.

Little Mary Lee Carr delighted the audience with a recitation "My Daddy's Flag" and Charlene Smith gave two readings in a very pleasing manner.

Misses Hazel Williams, Nellie Arnold and Loreah Rutledge, who possess unusually sweet voices each contributed a pretty solo, and Misses Gladys Brown and Helen Blemmons added charming readings.

The choir rendered beautiful anthems throughout the evening, and three drills put on by the school were especially enjoyed.

MAKING HEADWAY ON SUNLIGHT SWITCH

The B. & O. construction gang is beginning to make good headway on the switch for the Sunlight Creameries, work having been delayed somewhat during the past several days because of a lost shipment of rails, which were finally located in the yards at Dayton.

There is every indication that before the week is over the switch will be completed, as it is the announced intention of the B. & O. to rush the work.

In the meantime the Sunlight Creameries have received two additional car loads of new cans, making a total of 4,000 new ten-gallon cans received in the last few weeks, so that the concern already has cans with capacity of some 75,000 gallons, with more cans coming.

HONOR THE DEAD IN IMPRESSIVE SERVICES SUNDAY

Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters Hold Beautiful Ceremonies For Deceased Members.

Large Audience Hears Eulogy at Presbyterian Church Sunday Afternoon.

Dignified and imposing services commemorated the observance of Memorial Day on the part of Confidence Lodge, 265, Knights of Pythias. The Pythian Sisters held their memorial services in conjunction with the Knights and this combined to make a most pleasing feature of the program.

Promptly at the appointed hour both the Knights and the Pythian Sisters assembled at the Pythian Castle where the line of march was formed by Marshal Chas. W. Sever.

Headed by the Washington band and with the Uniform Rank in full dress, a stately and imposing body the Pythians marched to the First Presbyterian church where an appropriate and beautiful program was rendered.

Mrs. Lillie G. Davis played softly while the order filed into the church.

The program opened with the singing of "America" by the audience, after which prayer was offered by Rev. J. T. Newell. A piano solo—Selection from Chaminade—played by Miss Donna Barnett, was most heartily appreciated by the audience and the talented young pianist was at her best.

Miss Jessie Sunkel contributed a pleasing vocal solo to the enjoyment of the afternoon and Mr. Maynard Craig also won the plaudits of the audience with his rich voice.

The opening remarks were made by Master of Ceremonies Harry M. Rankin. With brevity and effectiveness, Mr. Rankin spoke of the aims and principles of the order, his remarks both opportune and fitting.

The order had been very fortunate in securing Rev. J. T. Newell, of the First Presbyterian church of Greenfield, to make the memorial address and although not a member of the order Rev. Newell delivered one of the most convincing and stirring addresses that has ever been delivered on such an occasion.

The theme: "Good Fellowship," had been chosen by the speaker and it proved to be remarkably well selected and his manner of handling the subject able beyond question.

Rev. Newell dwelt at some length on the founding of the order after the close of the Civil War. He stated that the good feeling which soon connected the North and the South after the great struggle was partly due to the efforts of the Pythians.

The speaker brought out the fact that 5,000 of Ohio's soldiers in the recent war were members of the order, and that at present there were over 100,000 Knights in this stage alone. Rev. Newell's remark on a motto of the order: "Pluck a Thorn and Plant a Rose" were especially fitting.

Mr. Will Baker presided as chairman and was assisted by Messrs. Charles Sever and Joe Gillespie.

Upon the completion of the program the line of march was formed to the Washington cemetery by the Washington band, the Uniform Rank, the Subordinate Lodge and the Pythian Sisters in automobiles.

Upon the return from the cemetery a band concert by the Washington band on the court house lawn formed a pleasing ending for the services.

Johnson's Outburst

Senator Hiram Johnson's latest announced position of opposition to the league of nations pact is a decidedly unique one. The peculiar nature of the objection which he urges, however, would not be the cause of so much uncomplimentary discussion if it was not that the spectacular Californian becomes so bitter in his denunciation of the men who framed the treaty because they did not recognize the correctness of the revolutionary provisions which he urges should be incorporated in it.

The senator from California urges that the peace league pact should provide that this nation could not enter a war until authority for so doing was granted by a vote of the people. It is quite reasonable to believe that a decided majority of the American people would not agree with Senator Johnson on the wisdom of such a change in our basic law. But when he violently denounces the men who framed the treaty of peace for not incorporating such provisions in the document and deduces, from that omission that the men are not patriotic and are servants of a privileged class, endeavoring to lodge the power to declare war in the privileged few alone, Americans think Senator Johnson goes entirely too far.

With just as much reason he might charge the framers of the constitution, who lodged in congress the power to declare war, with having been servants of the privileged classes.

For nearly a century and a half the power to declare war and conclude peace has remained where our forefathers lodged it when they framed the constitution.

Perhaps the time has come to change those provisions of the constitution, but certainly the men who framed the peace treaty at Paris are not to be censured and abused because they did not provide a method of procedure of which the constitution would not permit.

The outburst of the sensational senator from the Golden State is on a par with many other objections and denunciations that have been staged in the Senate during the last six months.

Verification

In these marvelous times, when things, heretofore considered "impossible," are occurring with a frequency which has long since numbed that very delightful something in the human make up which gives us a pleasurable shock or thrill, it is well to wait always for verification before we accept, as true, announcements of extraordinary achievements.

True we are living in a wonderful era—a time when it seems "anything" can happen and, to be plain about it, verification of rumors of remarkable achievements has been so general that we have, almost, become accustomed to believe that the old time caution can be omitted in accepting claims; that the grain of salt, with which we have for many years, insisted in taking along with our rumors of the marvelous, may be passed up.

That's a mistake. There have been rumors of remarkable achievements which have not been verified by later developments. We must keep on insisting on and waiting for the real facts before expressing our opinion, refusing to credit rumor by repeating it as fact.

Waiting for verification will prevent an immense amount of harmful gossip from being circulated and waiting for verification will not in the least dim the lustre of the many brilliant achievements that are occurring.

Alvin C. York

Alvin C. York, the Tennessee mountaineer and churchman who returned from overseas service with a record of bravery and single-handed accomplishment in action which stamps him as the super-hero of the war, thus far seems to retain his manly simplicity in spite of the extravagant adulation tendered him in every city and camp since he landed in New York.

The rugged mountaineer has accepted all the praise showered upon him as he accepted military service—a part of his duty.

He has clung steadfastly to his purpose to return to the little community in the mountains of Tennessee, meet his loved ones again, marry the girl of his choice and once again take up life where he left off. The red clay of the mountain sides and small valleys will be forced by the determined efforts of the sturdy York to yield a living for himself and his family and the work of the mountain church will again go forward with the second elder on hands once more whenever there is regular meetin'.

Politicians and publicity seekers in every walk of life, have sought by conducting welcoming entertainments to shine in the glory which is reflected from the presence of York but through it all he has remained unchanged. A record of steadfast adherence to ideals, unselfish patriotism and love of home and the simple life, has been exhibited by York, which shows a strength of character and a bravery second only to his record in the service.

POETRY FOR TODAY

WHILE WE HAVE THEM
There's no one like a mother, lad,
To comfort all our pain;
There's no one like a father, lad,
To make one smile again;
So while we have our mother, boy,
Let's drive away her fear;
And while we have our father, boy,
Let's fill his heart with cheer.

There's no one like a mother, lad,
To keep us pure within;
There's no one like a father, lad,
To warn away from sin;
So while we have a mother, boy,
Oh, let us not rebel;
And while we have a father, boy,
Let's heed his warnings well.

The time is surely coming, lad,
When mother will be gone;
The time is surely coming, lad,
Of father's passing on;
So while we have our mother, lad,
Let's make her spirit blest;
And while we have our father, boy,
Let's be our very best.

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

A marriage of widely extended interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Thomas, on Washington Avenue, Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, when their daughter, Ruth, plighted her troth to Mr. Walter A. Downing of New Madison, Ohio.

Rev. A. Y. Wilcox, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Athens, officiated.

The ceremony, witnessed only by a few relatives and friends, was characterized by quite simplicity and of festiveness.

The bride, a girl endowed with much personal charm as well as rare qualities of mind and heart, wore a lovely gown of white georgette crepe and carried an armband of crimson and white roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Downing are alumni of Ohio University, where they were very active in the University life. Mrs. Downing has been teaching in Cleveland the past year. Her husband only recently receiving his honorable discharge from the army, having served for some time with the Ordnance Corps.

Among the guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Campbell, Atlanta, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thomas, Miss Hazel Thomas, Mr. J. L. Downing and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Siders, New Madison, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Downing, Richmond, Ind.; Mr. Clarence C. Liggett, Norwood, Ohio.

A host of friends in this city will share in the interest of the following, slipping from the society columns of "The Republican News" of Hamilton, Ohio, of June the fourth.

Miss Harbison's resignation as Latin teacher from the Washington C. H. High School to accept a position occasioned regret akin to that which is now felt in the Hamilton schools.

"One of the most interesting announcements of the week is the engagement of Miss Beulah L. Harbison, the well known teacher at the Hamilton High School, to Captain James B. Clinton, of Philadelphia. Miss Harbison has been Latin and French instructor at the high school for the past year and has a devoted number of students to wish her happiness.

Miss Harbison is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harbison of Delaware Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, and a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University. She possesses a piquant style of beauty of the brunette type and a very interesting personality and has been one of the most popular teachers with the students at H. H. S.

The groom-elect, Captain Clinton was graduated from the Jefferson Medical School at Philadelphia, and for the past twenty-one months has been serving in France as Captain of the Medical Corps, with British forces and the Cambridgeshire Regiment, which is quite famous. He has been decorated twice and has just returned from overseas. The date of the wedding has not been set, but will be beautifully celebrated some time this summer.

It will be with deep regret the high school will part with such a capable teacher as Miss Harbison. This year she successfully produced several plays from the dramatic department of the H-Y girls and they were finished in every detail and pronounced successful by all who attended.

The attractive Zimmerman home on the Prairie pike was the scene of a delightful family dinner Saturday at which Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zimmerman were assisted in entertaining by their daughter, Miss Clara, sons Elmer and Raymond.

June roses and peonies were lavishly used in decoration and an elaborate menu served.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Scott Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Fisher, son Raymond, daughter, Miss Mary, Mr. Henry Harper, Mr. and Mrs. M. U. King, son, Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Will Elliott, daughter, Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wilson and two daughters.

In honor of the eightieth birthday of her father Mr. J. W. Rothrock, Mrs. Charles T. Bell, and Mr. Bell entertained at their home in Columbus Sunday with most enjoyable family dinner, of beautiful appointments and decoration of pink and white snap dragons.

The additional guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Rothrock, sons Herbert and Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rothrock, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rothrock, Mr. and Mrs. Colpoys, of Springfield.

Mr. Rothrock has reached the four score milestone in health, activity and the preservation of his faculties to a most unusual degree and his large number of friends are extending heartsome best wishes, with the hope that he may enjoy many future birthday celebrations, happily surrounded by his devoted children and grand children. He remains for a visit of several days with his daughter.

Two young people especially well known in the southern part of the county, Miss Lula Page, daughter of Mr. Henry Page and Mr. Ralph Roush, daughter of Mr. Samuel Roush, were united in marriage by Rev. Gale Saturday evening.

The bride was handsomely attired and looked very pretty in a navy blue tailored suit, with white georgette blouse, and hat of dark blue. She is a bright and attractive young woman, who after completing her education at the Ohio University, Athens, capably taught the Aquilla School for two years.

The bride-groom is a wide awake and progressive young farmer, who has been co-operating with his father in extensive farming and has a home all furnished and in readiness, for his bride on the Sabina-Greenfield pike.

The young people went at once to their new home, the best wishes of a host of friends following them.

In honor of Thomas Rogers and Russell Dern, who left Monday morning for Canada to join the Colt-Alber Chautauqua Co. for the season and Robert Reardon who leaves Thursday to accept a position with the same company, there was a jolly picnic supper given at Rock Mills, Sunday evening.

The roasting of weiners was enjoyed after the supper.

An unusual service of Sunday afternoon was the Christening of nine children all cousins, by Rev. Arthur P. Cherrington at the home of Mr. Walter Jones on Rawling street.

The children were Robert Barnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barnett; Fred and Frank, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Junk; Billie son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Junk; Charles son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones; Bennett, Martin, Richard and Louise, children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Junk of Austin.

A few additional guests assembled with the immediate families for the service.

SEXTON-MERRITT

Coming as a surprise to many friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Grace Sexton, daughter, Mrs. G. A. M. McMahon, to Mr. Earle Merritt, son of Mr. Milton Merritt, on last Wednesday morning at 10:30.

Rev. Gale performed the ceremony at the parsonage.

The bride is a very pretty girl of the blonde type and Mr. Merritt is a sterling young farmer, who recently received his discharge from the army.

The young couple have the best wishes of their numerous friends for a happy wedded life.

LAW STUDENT AIDS ATLANTA WOMEN IN GAINING SUFFRAGE

Miss Eleanor Raoul.

The recent municipal primary vote granted the white women of Atlanta, Georgia, the right of equal suffrage. Miss Eleanor Raoul, a young woman law student in Atlanta and a former member of the National American Woman Suffrage association's research bureau, helped the cause of the Atlanta women by campaigning for them. "Theoretically we have obtained a small share of what we should have, but practically we have gained a great deal when one remembers that Georgia is supposed to be locked and barred against equal suffrage," is the way Miss Raoul looks at the achievement.

REDUCED RATES TO S. S. CONVENTION

Officials of the County Sunday School Association have received instructions for issuance to delegates so that a reduced railroad fare will be available to them in making the trip to the state convention at Akron, June 13th to 19th and in brief these instructions follow:

"Tickets at the normal one-way tariff fare for the going journey may be obtained on any of the following dates (but not on any other date) June 13th to 19th, 1919. Be sure that, when purchasing your going ticket, you request a certificate. Do not make the mistake of asking for a 'receipt'."

"Present yourself at the railroad station for ticket and certificate at least 30 minutes before departure of train on which you will begin your journey. Immediately on your arrival at the meeting present your certificate to the endorsing officer, Mr. A. T. Arnold, general secretary.

GREAT COUNCIL OF THE SHRINERS

(By Associated Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., June 9.—Shriners from all parts of the United States and Canada were present when the jubilee session of the imperial council began its four day annual convention here today. More than 50,000 Shriners are expected to attend the convention which is the first to be held since the meeting at Buffalo in 1917, when it was decided to suspend the annual festivities until after the war. Thousands of rooms in private homes are being utilized to accommodate visitors who could not find quarters in hotels.

The city which has been preparing for the event for months is decorated in a brilliant manner. In addition to flags and bunting the down town streets are spanned by arches and illuminated at night by colored electric lights in festoons and various designs.

Officially the convention does not begin until tomorrow, today's program being given over to the registration of visitors and in getting them "oriented". It also included the presentation of a flag to the city of Indianapolis by El Katif temple, of Spokane, Wash., and the first events of the "wild west" round-up and athletic and boxing contests.

GYPSY CASE IS RESUMED MONDAY

After a delay of several days, the case of Ohio against John Nichols and others, familiarly known as the Gypsy case, the trial was resumed Monday morning, with increased interest in the proceedings.

The defense continued to offer witnesses with intention of proving an alibi for the four men charged with assault and robbery, most of the witnesses being from the Dayton community.

It is expected that the case will come to an end Tuesday or Wednesday, unless the examination of witnesses requires more time than indicated.

Tomorrow is the last discount day for gas and electric light bills.

CHARGED WITH STEALING BONDS

William Hess, associated with the Mau Shows which were in this city two weeks ago, was taken into custody by Chief D. L. Moore, in Xenia, Saturday afternoon, charged with the theft of three Liberty Bonds which were alleged to have been stolen from a young woman in this city.

Hess admitted having had the bonds in his possession, but insisted that he had found them. He declared, according to Chief Moore, that he had sold the three bonds for $121, and that one of them was purchased by a man in this city.

The authorities are sifting the affair to the bottom and Hess, who hails from West Virginia, is confined in the county jail awaiting final action. The affidavit filed against him charges grand larceny.

It is understood that whether he found the bonds or got hold of them otherwise, he made no effort to find the owner—a thing which would have been easy.

BOY SCOUTS HAVE NOTABLE RECORD

Now that the Boy Scouts are asking the citizens of Fayette county for financial support to be secured during an associate membership drive June 8 to 14, it may be interesting to review the war work record of the Scouts.

Boy Scouts of America assisted in all Liberty Loans. In the first four they sold bonds amounting to $278,744.650. They sold War Savings Stamps totaling $42,751,031.25. Scouts located 5,299 carloads of black walnut at the Government's request, and collected over 100 carloads of fruit pits to be used in gas masks. More than 12,000 war gardens and farms were conducted by Scouts, who also distributed over 30,000,000 pieces of literature.
